Why Attend

This course is designed to provide an overview of the essential practices for boosting the global competitiveness of tourism destinations. It begins by examining the duties and responsibilities of governing bodies and Destination Management Organizations (DMOs). Secondly, it highlights the significance of attraction factors and performance standards in the process of creating a unique brand identity for the destination. Lastly, it focuses on practical measures to reduce the negative impacts of mass tourism and enhance the overall visitor experience.

This dynamic course offers a well-rounded education that blends both theoretical and hands-on learning experiences. It follows an interactive teaching approach, incorporating engaging elements such as lectures, real-life case studies, group discussions, and collaborative exercises.

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Recognize the significance of efficient destination management strategies and the crucial role of cooperation between the private sector and the public sector
- Utilize various techniques to evaluate destination competitiveness and performance comparison
- Establish a favorable destination image through strategic branding and positioning
- Formulate plans for sustainable management of destinations and attractions
- Implement proven methods to increase visitor satisfaction and trust
